

PHONE EMPLOYEE IS FIRST GIRL TO GET TIMES BICYCLE

"It's Easy," Says Miss Pearl Kane, Who Gets Prize in Short Time.

To Miss Pearl Kane, 137 1/2 Columbia road, goes the honor of winning the first lady's bicycle offered in The Washington Times $300,000 bicycle contest.

Miss Kane, who is employed in the engineering department of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, turned in thirty-five new yearly subscribers for this paper Tuesday, they were verified yesterday, and today she called at The Washington Times Bicycle Contest Headquarters, 1222 F street northwest and selected her bicycle.

"It is simply splendid to get this beautiful bicycle for so little effort," said the proud and smiling young winner. "It took only a few hours to sign up the thirty-five new yearly subscribers. In fact, practically everyone I approached on the subject of subscribing for The Washington Times seemed eager to do so. The only trouble I had was meeting so many persons who were already taking The Washington Times. "I got most of the subscribers in the telephone company's office. The engineering department was recently moved here from Baltimore and I knew these employees who came from the Monumental City would want to subscribe for The Washington Times best paper, so I gave them the opportunity and they readily accepted it. I believe that anyone who enters this contest with a determination to get a bicycle in a given number of days is bound to succeed."

Miss Kane's story is precisely like that of all the other winners of free $50 bicycles. If you want to see how easy it is to get one, sign the coupon in today's paper, get a subscription book and make a canvass among your friends, neighbors or fellow employees. Remember, there is no age limit for contestants. Also remember that when you get subscriptions you must turn them in at 1222 F street the same day you get them so that delivery of the paper can begin at once.

GIRL KILLED BY TAXI; POLICE HOLD DRIVER

While crossing the street near her home, Anna Hoffman, colored, twelve years old, of 1548 Eighth street northwest, was struck and killed yesterday by a public hack.

The hack driver, John B. Reeves, 117 Seventh street northeast, was placed under arrest and is being held at the Eighth precinct police station to await the coroner's verdict.

The girl was crossing to the northeast corner of Eighth and Q streets northwest when she was struck. She was taken to Emergency Hospital, where she was pronounced dead.
